CONSIDINE BACKS M'COY FOR $5,000 AGAINST FITZSIMMONS

If Weight Question Can Be Adjusted Satisfactorily Pair Will Have It Out in the Ring.

No. 116 New York, Mar 5th 1904
New Amsterdam National Bank
Pay to the order of New York Evening World
Five Thousand Dollars
$5,000.00
John R. Considine

BY KNOCKOUT.

"MONEY TALKS," they say.
Granted this is true, the above $5,000 has this to say:
"Johnny Considine thinks 'Kid' McCoy the greatest fighter of his weight and inches in the world."
"Johnny says the 'Kid' is the WORLD'S MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPION."

"Old Man Robert Fitzsimmons has kept his press agent busy lately circulating a report that the middle-weight title is stowed away in the Kangaroo's strong box in the old homestead at Bensonhurst."
"This report has raised a terrible heat under Mr. Johnny's collar."
"Fitz middle-weight champion!" he says; "why, that old fossil couldn't do the middle-weight limit, 158 pounds, if he cut a leg off. And if he can, McCoy will knock his block into the next street."

NOT POETRY, BUT TRUTH.

"This is not exactly classical, but I am here to demonstrate that it bears the merit of truth, for right there and then the Considine fountain pen got busy and I was pushed out into the cold, heartless world."
"My mission on earth is to live up to the adage, 'Money talks,' and holler my head off until Mr. Kangaroo Fitz 'puts up or shuts up,' and I'm going to holler until I get black in the face."

WHO IS CHAMPION?

THAT'S a pretty busy check considering its youth, and now it's through spouting I'll get in a few remarks myself.

Answer this:
WHO IS MIDDLE-WEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD?
Ask Bob Fitzsimmons.
Ask "Kid" McCoy.
Ask Tommy Ryan.
Each and every one of this trio of wind-jammers will flash a warranted, copper-riveted title to the middle-weight honors.
Fitz says he can do the weight. If he can he is certainly a strong candidate.

RYAN'S MEAL TICKET.

Ryan coins many a dollar by tackling the middle-weight title to his three sheets.
McCoy has "cleaned up" for Mr. Ryan a couple of times, and now that his kidneys has rounded back to his old-time form he certainly shows he has faith in his ability to "hang it on" Fitz by sending a $5,000 forfeit along with his challenge to "Ruby Robert."

If some kind-hearted old sport, with more change in his "klick" than brains in his thinking apparatus, would hang up a two or three million dollar purse for this worthy trio to battle for this tangle might be unraveled.

WHAT ABOUT THIS, FITZ?

Meantime, wonder what the freckled one will have to say to the disturbance this $5,000 check threatens to raise.
Eh, Fitz?

GIANTS BEGIN PRACTICE TO-DAY AT SAVANNAH

THE Giants are scheduled to begin their spring training at Savannah to-day. McGraw, Warner and Browne are already there, having gone by rail. Mathewson, Bowerman, Gilbert and Minchew went by rail and are due at their destination to-day.
The strictest kind of training will be followed by all hands, and with the arrival of playing time McGraw hopes the boys will be in tip-top shape.
Manager Clarke Griffith will assemble the New York American team at the Bobbitt House, in Washington, D. C., on Wednesday. The Highlanders will then be taken to Atlanta, Ga., to get their muscles in shape. They will remain there till March 26, when they will leave for a number of practice games in various cities.
From March 27 to 30 the Highlanders will meet scrub teams, and the Mobile team at Mobile, Ala. They will then go to New Orleans, where they will play games till April 4.
On April 4 they are scheduled to meet the Montgomery team at Montgomery, Ala. and on April 6 they will cross bats with the Montreal Club of the Eastern League at Richmond, Va.
The Highlanders play their first game at home with Manhattan College on April 8.

JENKINS FAVORED TO BEAT PIENING

The wrestling match between Tom Jenkins, the co-tick-of-the-champion, and John Piening, the "Butcher Boy," which takes place Friday night at Butzer's Harlem River Park, is creating as much local interest as a championship glove contest in the old days of the Horton law.
The betting on the result of the match, which is to be at mixed style of wrestling, is in favor of Jenkins, who feels confident that he will defeat Piening decisively. The Gracioso-Roman champion's friends, however, are just as certain that Piening will be the winner.
Another Fournier, the giant French wrestler, who claims the championship of France, has challenged the winner, Eberhardt Halm, of the German-American A. C., is eager to meet George Kohler in a limited time contest as a special attraction the same night.

SMATHERS BACKING TRACK?

The construction of the new race course at New Orleans is in the hands of E. D. Brown, the well known sportsman. He is very confident of success in the venture. All through the South and West it is believed that the new race track will be a success.

NEW WEST SIDE A. C. DRAWS BIG ENTRY

Entries are coming in fast for the big games of the New West Side A. C., which will be held March 19 at the Twenty-second Regiment Armory.
The programme arranged has many features, one of which is the half mile indoor championship, in which all the stars of the Metropolitan district will compete. Blanks may be had by application to the games committee, New West Side A. C., No. 325 West Fifty-fourth street.

SPRING GALLOPS START AT LOCAL RACE COURSES

GRAVESEND, March 7.—Spring training at the local tracks saw its first real opening to-day.
The two-year-olds Solvanite, Vancie and Bazillia, of the Pierre Lorrillard string, worked the route together in 2:12. Charles Elwood and the Lady Robesia, with the two-year-olds Edith Brown, Reliance Salad Days and Danussee, were sent a quarter-mile breather in 2:45.
There were more horses shown on the course than before this spring, and the track was crowded to its fullest capacity all during the morning.
A feature of the morning work is the advanced condition shown by the racers in charge of Trainer Burlew, he sending the youngsters Right Royal and Wine and Song to a quarter-mile breather in 2:14. Gilpin and Salvage covered the distance in 2:3. Woodford Boy and Asterisk reeled off the same distance in 2:45.

Good Colt, This.

Trainer Goldsborough sent a brown colt by Halm and a chestnut one by Handorpe through the home stretch at close to racing speed.

M'GOVERN DEFEATS LOVE

(Special to The Evening World.)
HILADELPHIA, March 7.—Hughie McGovern defeated Tommy Love before the National Athletic Club Saturday night. The Brooklynite was the master of the local boy at every stage of the game and in every round. Love was somewhat handicapped by the rules, which were Marquis of Queensberry, and McGovern took full advantage of it and got all the best of the argument in fighting.
McGovern accidentally hit Love low in the second round with twenty seconds to go. The referee sent the boys to their corners instead of disqualifying McGovern. The blow did not prove serious and Love was ready to respond when the gong sounded for the third round.
McGovern kept up his good work in the third round, his short range work being particularly effective, while his rushes perplexed Love. The latter tried hard to turn the tide in his favor, but Hughie was always there waiting for him with a good stiff wallop.
Love has not been used to the modified rules of the ring as interpreted by Quaker referees. He tried to overcome this in the latter rounds, but Hughie knew too much about the game and held him safe throughout the bout.

The preliminaries furnished good sport. "Buck" Kelly lowered his colors to Kid Gilbert in the opening contest, the second bout was settled almost in record time, Jack Heller, a New York, stopping Joe Mace, of this city, in one minute and ten seconds with a right-handed swing on the jaw. Kid Murphy, of New York, and Willie Gibbs, of this city, went to the limit in a little to choose between them at the finish.
In the semi-wind up Cub White had several shades the better of Fred Vanuch.

BURDICK'S BOUTS DELAYED.

Johnny Burdick's matches, with Young Kelly, Young Donohue and Andy Daly have been postponed for two weeks, as the little boxer has joined Terry McGovern's show as sparring partner to the former champion. McGovern injured Danmy Dougherty in one of their bouts last week, and Burdick has taken his place for the present.

M'COY TO GET IN SHAPE AT NEWBURG

"KID" M'COY is up in the vicinity of Newburg now wearing off the effects of a bad cold that has bothered him recently. The "Kid" will be seen in the ring soon, and his idea in getting out of town is to get in some preparation.

TREMBLAY AND BOTHNER MEET ON MAT TO-NIGHT

GEORGE BOTHNER, the world's light-weight champion, and Eugene Tremblay, the Canadian champion, are ready for their match at the New Polo A. A., at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and Park avenue, to-night. Both men have been in training for weeks for the bout, which promises to be the best seen here this season.
Tremblay's claims to the championship are well founded. He has a record as good if not better than Bothner's. He has met every man in North America at his weight, and defeated

FASTEST ATHLETES IN THESE GAMES

Besides the ten mile A. A. U. championship, the Gaelic football and hurling matches, which will be the feature of the monster athletic carnival to be held by the Greater New York Irish A. A. at Madison Square Garden next Saturday night, the programme will contain a number of open events, which have been well entered. The officials are making every effort to bring together all the fastest men.
Among the local sprinters who will appear in this event are Priestein, of the Greater New York Irish A. A., Metropolitan broad jumper, H. Hillman, of the New York A. C., quarter mile champion, Lawson Robertson, of the Greater New York Irish A. A., junior 100 yards champion, Spitzer, of the Eastlimes, and Edwards, of the New West Side A. C.
In the one-mile handicap, Tommy Pierce, a brother of the noted Indian runner, who is only fifteen years old, and who, it is said, will be the fastest of the three, will meet all comers.

GRIFFIN'S CASE UP TO-DAY.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The matter of the suspension of H. T. Griffin at New Orleans will be heard by the stewards of the Western Jockey Club, Griffin having appealed to that body from the decision made against him on account of the Sweet Pepper matter.

LAST HOCKEY GAME WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The local hockey season closes Wednesday night, when the N. Y. A. C. and the Hockey Club of New York meet at St. Nicholas Rink.
The Wanderers have taken away the championship honors from the heretofore champion Crescents, the latter team having won the championship four years in succession. These two rival organizations will meet in an exhibition game at the Clermont Rink, in Brooklyn, Wednesday night, and the rink management has offered a trophy in the form of a loving cup to be presented to the winning team. A small fac-simile in silver will be presented to each member of the winning team.

VALE ENGAGES OLD THAMES QUARTERS

NEW LONDON, March 7.—The Yalo crew will occupy its old quarters this season at Gales Ferry, all reports to the contrary.
Frank Dodge, manager of the "varsity eight," accompanied by John Kennedy, the coach, has made arrangements with the heirs of Capt. Christopher Brown for the old quarters.
After arrangements were made for the quarters, Manager Dodge announced that the crew for the "varsity eight" would be June 30.
